Business Improvement Districts

Second Edition

Lawrence O. Houstoun Jr.

ULI-Urban Land Institute and ID-International Downtown Association

Thoroughly updated to include the latest information, this practical guide covers best practices for planning, organizing, and financing BIDs; the services they provide; and how they are operated and managed. A leading expert, the author provides his insight on the methods successful BIDs have used to increase property values and profitability; and to generate tax revenue. The new edition also covers challenges and opportunities encountered as BIDs mature, and information on BID-like organizations outside of the United States.

BIDS Business Improvement Districts; Second Edition: $130.00

BIDs or Business Improvement Districts are a model of urban revitalisation which utilises private/public sector partnerships to address local economic development, social issues such as marginalised youth, graffiti and unemployment issues.

BIDs have successfully operated in the US for over a decade. More recently, Tony Blair launched BIDs in the UK.

Anyone practicing economic development, community development, environmental management, urban renewal, tourism, organisational management will find this book relevant.
